DISASTROUS FIRE IN GREAT LONDON STORE

Hon. John Burns, Member of Liberal Cabinet, Distinguishes Himself at the Fire-Loss of Three Employees of Store Lost in Blaze.

London, Dec. 20.—Hon. "Boss" John Burns, member of the Liberal cabinet, as president of the local government board, is the hero of a disastrous fire which cost the lives of three department store employees, and destroyed the big dry goods emporium of Arding and Hobbs, at Cripplegate, in the south-eastern quarter of London today, with a loss of $2,500,000. He was one of the early arrivals at the fire and at once took a hand in directing rescuees of frightened employees and in aiding the firemen's efforts to fight the fire. He strapped a sack about his shoulders to protect himself from flying cinders and sparks and assisted many people from the window.

President Burns, who is the first working man to hold a cabinet rank in London, remained at the fire three hours. Then he had a severe bath on his head, bandaged up, and with his clothes saturated with water and his face begrimed with smoke, he attended a meeting of the electors at Battersea. He related his experience and asked the meeting to excuse him from making a speech. The audience stood up as a mark of respect to the five victims and dispersed with cheers for "Boss John."

The fire started when the store was crowded with customers. So perfect was the discipline of the employees that the customers were given the right of way to all exits and every one escaped. The three hundred men were not so fortunate, a number being trapped on the upper floors. Two men carried two girls down to an upper window. One of the girls started down the ladder and reached the ground in safety. The other burned and she fell to her death.

Two men jumped and were killed. There may be other victims' bodies in the ruins, which are still too hot to permit of a search. It is believed that the fire started when an electric light bulb exploded over a counter on which quantities of celluloid goods were displayed. The store had five floors, 100 departments, and covered an acre of ground. The Christmas decorations helped to spread the flames.

TO GO ON SYMPATHETIC STRIKE 2,000 Railway Employees May Join the Switchmen.

Minneapolis, Dec. 20.—Two thousand freight handlers and railway clerks employed on the northwestern route, enmeshed in the switchmen's strike, are to go on a sympathetic strike. This startling announcement was made tonight by H. P. Persham, chairman of the railway department of the American Federation of Labor, now in the Twin Cities, to investigate the switchmen's tie up. A conference between railroad managers and the American Federation delegates may be held soon for the purpose of discussing the possibility of a settlement before this drastic action is taken.

American Federation delegates have made a call on Governor Elbertson, asking him to intervene. The suggestion of a conference with the railroads was made at this time after Mr. Persham, American Federation spokesman, had strongly intimated that it might be necessary to call out other organizations. Governor Elbertson believes he can arrange a meeting between railroad managers and strikers.

THE GREAT NORTHERN FLYER WAS WRECKED

Railroad Officials Investigating Speculations That New Menus Were Being Served. Angle Bars Have Disappeared, Which May Mean That Train Wreckers Were at Work.

Minneapolis, Dec. 20.—Missing angle bars at the point where the Great Northern Winnipeg flyer went into the ditch, forty miles south of Minneapolis, Saturday night, have caused the railroad officials to open a strict investigation because of a suspicion that the wreck might not have been entirely accidental.

The Great Northern officials hesitate to believe that there was a deliberate attempt to wreck the train, but the missing bars are considered of sufficient importance to cause a general investigation. There are special agents at work in the vicinity of the wreck, and every surviving member of the train crew has been ordered to return to Minneapolis to give individual versions of the wreck.

The report of F. Bell, assistant general superintendent, wired to local headquarters from Albertville Sunday, said that spreading rails caused the wreck. Missing angle bars mean spreading rails. Mr. Bell says he is not inclined to believe that any one deliberately wrecked the train, but admits that the missing bars puzzle him and are the subject of the investigation. He suggests that they may have been in some some distance from where the rear end left the track.

"Lucky Great Northern" is the way the passengers speak of the wreck, which was one of the most spectacular in the history of the state, and yet only one man was killed and one injured. With the second engine and the tender 20 feet from the tracks, the mail car and baggage car hurtling in a snow drift, regular motion several feet off the track and blowing in places, first class day coaches off the track, and what is known as a dead-end coach, which was empty, piled up close to the burning cars. Passengers marvel that but one was killed and one injured.

Even Great Northern officials marvel, accustomed as they are to Great Northern luck. It was a remarkable story of the heroism of the passengers that the conductor had to tell. Students to shoulder university athletes, a baseball pitcher, a travelling salesman, tourists and actors had worked to save the railroad property. United States mail, express and a corpse in the baggage car.

This is the Way to Get Industries. Welland, Dec. 20.—A lay-law granting fixed rates of assessment for the Electric Steel Company's plant, located today in Croftland township by a vote of 226 for and nothing against. The company commenced the construction of its buildings some time ago.

The plan was to make the trip and endeavor to get the team into shape as a representative team will be taken east.

Contracted Statement.

"I wish to contradict the statement in your paper this morning in reference to the Shamrocks not going after the Stanley Cup," says the manager of the Shamrocks, who said last night that the team would go to Ottawa. Quinn has taken up the matter and we have heard nothing that assures us that the trip will be a reality. And take it from me I think that Harry Kennedy and Billy Keon will be members of the team and there is a possibility of three also playing. We intend to go after several other teams who are going to the west and the prospects are certainly bright for a strong team to be put together by Quinn as he hung up the cup piece of the plan.

COBALT AFTER CUP.

Cobalt, Dec. 20.—Tommy Hare is expected back from Montreal tomorrow with at least two players for the Cobalt team this winter. Notwithstanding the offers that players have been receiving this year Cobalt expects to have a Stanley Cup team, and also hopes to lead the new Canadian Professional League, composed of Haldimand, Cobalt, Renfrew, Wainwright, and Nationals, the last two being from Montreal teams.

It is expected that Art Thayer, one of the stars in the Ontario Professional League, will come to terms and play for one of the coming youngsters in the game today, and both Haldimand and Cobalt are after him.

HIGHEST YET FOR PLAYER.

Ontario, Dec. 20.—The largest salaries ever offered for the services of hockey players have been forthcoming this season. But a new contract has come to light that puts everything of the kind on a new basis.

Frank Orrie, of the Cliffhangers, has been offered the equivalent of $4,000 to remain out of hockey. Orrie's father, the well-known piano manufacturer, of Ottawa, made his son the offer recently, and Frank accepted it. While the actual cash was not paid, Orrie, Mr. Orrie's son, gave his son forty shares in the firm.

Last winter during a strenuous practice of the Cliffhangers and junior teams, Orrie had a serious injury to his ear to ear in a skate blade and as a result of more stitches were required to close the gash. Since that time his parents have been strictly opposed to their son going on the ice, but his love for hockey has been so keen, it became necessary to hang out something to induce the youngster to hang up his skates.

ALLAN CUP HOLDERS TO N.Y.

Kington, Ont., Dec. 20.—Queen's senior hockey team will go to New York to play an exhibition game with the All-New York team on the evening of December 20. The team which will probably represent Queen's will be composed of the following: Foreward—George, Crawford and Debon.

Rever—Campbell. To be chosen from Lockett, Hadden, Edgar, Gilbert, Frost and Dunbar. In the absence of Hadden, last year's goal tender, an effort was made to secure the services of Eddie Hadden but he cannot get over his injury.

TYNER TO MANAGE BRANTFORD.

Brantford, Ont., Dec. 20.—It was announced this morning that the management of the Brantford team will be taken over by Chuck Tyner, of Toronto, who is being sought as manager of the Brantford professional hockey team in connection with the Allan Cup.

AMUSEMENTS

WORTH GOING TO SEE.

An old play ever so new, because of the great human interest in "The Mid-dleman" which was presented at the Edmonton Opera House last evening by the Summers Stock company giving the second week of their engagements.

The dramatic talent of the company afforded a much larger audience than was present at last night's previous performance. The play is a story of a man who is driven to crime by the greed of the money and the greed of the money is the theme of the play. The versatile Wm. Blake is not one of those tragedians who treat the boards to give vent to furious and violent declamation. As Cyrus Hatten, the apostle of an entirely different type of play, he has yet to make a name for himself in the theatre.

The climatic of the play, occurs in the scene where the hero is driven to crime by the greed of the money and the greed of the money is the theme of the play. The play is a story of a man who is driven to crime by the greed of the money and the greed of the money is the theme of the play.
